

Milton Community Thanksgiving Service

The churches of Milton will join in a Thanksgiving worship service on Thanksgiving Eve, Wed., Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. at The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist. Area clergy will be participating, with preaching by The Rev. Dusty Pruitt of Safe Harbor United Church of Christ. Special music will also be an important feature of the service. Afterward all are invited to enjoy light refreshments.

St. John the Baptist is located at 307 Federal St. in Milton. Parking is available in the church parking lot or on the street.

Father Tom White, rector of St. John the Baptist, states, "Thanksgiving Day is one of my favorite holidays—but I only wish that thanks for the cornucopia of gifts God pours into our lives were more central to our celebration, rather than football and the turkey. So I'm excited that the Milton community can come together on Thanksgiving Eve to praise and thank God, from Whom all blessings flow. In the words of the hymn, 'Come ye thankful people, come!'"
